

Who is this for?

This qualification is for those that are interested in, or are required to attend annual training in basic life support. While some candidates may be interested in undertaking this qualification for personal development, those working in a GP or dentist surgery may attend to meet industry requirements..

Course content

This qualification has been developed to shared units with other regulated awarding organisations. Topics include:

- Primary survey
- CPR – Infant
- CPR – Child
- CPR – Adult
- Use of an AED
- Child and infant AED modifications
- Recovery position
- Recognition of choking
- Choking treatment – Infant
- Choking treatment – Child
- Choking treatment – Adult

Key points

- Regulated qualification
- Written inline with Current UK Resuscitation Council Guidelines
- Certificate included
- Assessed by Practical Observation