

Who is this for?

This qualification is typically delivered over a half day, or as a bolt on to a full First aid course. The intention is for learners to be able to use an AED with confidence. They will also understand the correct use, storage and maintenance.

This is perfect for those who have an AED in their workplace.

Course content

This qualification has been developed to meet recognised training requirements and has been written to the UK resuscitation council protocols

- Primary survey
- Recovery position
- Adult CPR
- Child/drowning adult CPR (as appropriate)
- Safety considerations
- Safe use of the AED
- Handing over to the emergency services

Additional content can be added however additional time should be allocated.

Please contact us for details.

Key points

- Regulated qualification
- Written to UK Resuscitation council protocols
- 3 Guided learning hours (1/2 day)
- 5 hours Total qualification time
- Valid for 1 year
- Certificate included
- Assessed by MCQs and practical observation